

Online Resources for Body Safety, Consent, and Sexual Abuse Prevention

<https://www.safesecurekids.org/>

This website contains information as well as games and activities.

<https://fightchildabuse.org/>

This website has excellent short videos on protect yourself rules, which are broken down by age level. From K-3, 4-6, and Teens.

<https://themamabeareffect.org/>

This website contains tons of information, statistics, and resources that can be used with all age levels.

<https://e2epublishing.info/>

This website has many books available for young children. They also have many follow up activities and lessons. Some are free, and some are available for a small fee. Their resources are for all grade levels, while the books are geared towards the younger set.

Free posters: <https://e2epublishing.info/posters#postersus>

<https://www.childhelp.org/>

This website has some basic information about child abuse as well as a national child abuse hotline. They also have a video series that can be used at all ages.

<https://safekidsthive.org/>

Safe Kids Thrive provides tools and resources at no cost to Youth-Serving Organizations (YSOs) to keep children safe from sexual abuse. Our guidelines are based on best practices and recommendations from the Massachusetts Legislative Task Force on the Prevention of Child Sexual Abuse.

<https://vetoviolence.cdc.gov/apps/main/home>

Many options for free videos and video series on ACEs and violence prevention.

<https://www.cdc.gov/violenceprevention/>

Information on violence prevention of all kinds.

<https://www.d2l.org/>

Training offerings for adults for child abuse prevention.